

Matsuyama JALT Invites You to its May 12 & 19 2024 Events

JALT is the abbreviation of the NPO Japan Association for Language Teaching (全国語学教育学会). JALT promotes excellence in language learning, teaching, and research by providing opportunities for those involved in language education to meet, share, and collaborate.

Matsuyama JALT is one of the 32 chapters in Japan. It is an organization which aims to learn and teach to learn. In other words, we are involved in language education, especially English education.

In May 2024, Matsuyama JALT holds two special events on Zoom about 1) Elementary School English Education; and 2) Using Google Apps and Alternatives to Google Jamboard, for Language Education.

- (1) Sunday, May 12. Time: 15:00 to 17:00 (bilingual event in English and Japanese)
Title: Professional Development Needs of Elementary School Teachers of English
Presenters: Monica Hamciuc, Yoko Kusumoto

MONICA

HAMCIUC Endorsement Matsuyama City; Matsuyama City Board of Education YOKO KUSUMOTO

Section 1 Introduction to Professional Development Needs

Research from literature review, interviews, and a nationwide survey explores the professional needs and experiences of elementary school teachers of English

Section 2-Active Training Session

Short training session with pronunciation training exercises and small talk activities. Attendees can participate and think about how to design class activities.

Section 3-Discussion and Networking

A chance to share concerns or ideas related to teaching English. A great opportunity to network for those teaching English and researching the field.
