

TOTTORI JALT PRESENTS:

EMPATHY IN INTERCULTURAL COMMUNICATION

SUNDAY, JUNE 30TH

Presenter: Lynne Murphy of Shimane University

Successfully navigating intercultural communication can be challenging because impediments such as language barriers can hinder the flow. Adding a dose of empathy, however, enables smoother navigation, and this can be done by simply tweaking the language that we use when we communicate in an intercultural context. The presenter will enlighten you as to how you can tweak your language towards enabling empathic engagement so that you can elevate your intercultural communicative experience.

Presenter Bio:

Lynne Murphy is from Ireland and received her Master's in Applied Linguistics in 2018. Previously an ALT, she now works at Shimane University's Faculty of Medicine.
