Dear English Educator,

In this world of changing education methods and new digital teaching ideas, we would like to invite you to a unique opportunity happening in your area. The Japan Association for Language Teaching (JALT) will be having our annual international conference on November 12-14, at the Fukuoka International Conference Center. This conference is expected to be Japan's largest gathering of language educators in Japan. JALT represents teachers ranging from primary, secondary, university and language school levels of language education. We are cordially inviting you to free access to the Educational Materials Exhibition (EME) located on the second floor of the conference.

The EME is a 1320-square-meter space containing publishers and representatives from all aspects pertaining to language teaching and continuing education from all over the world. Please visit the EME to talk with our Associate Members and learn about the latest ideas and methods in language education. The EME is open:

- Saturday, Nov. 12 (9 AM - 6 PM (18:00))
- Sunday, Nov. 13 (9 AM - 3:30PM (15:30))

Also, for a fee, you have the opportunity to join our conference and have full access to the on-site presentations by international researchers.

Feel free to make copies of this letter and pass them around to your colleagues who are interested in attending this event. Bring this letter to the registration desk on the first floor of our conference in exchange for a conference badge that will give you access to the EME only.

The location of the Fukuoka International Congress Center is easily accessible by car, bus or subway.
