LISTENING SIG SHOWCASE

DR YO HAMADA'S ONLINE PRESENTATION DISCUSSES HIS ONGOING WORK ON THE LINKS BETWEEN SHADOWING AND PRESENT APPROACHES TOWARDS EFL TEACHING TECHNIQUES FOR L2 LISTENING COMPREHENSION.

THE SECOND PART SHOWCASES OUR LISTENING SIG. WE WILL PRESENT DEVELOPMENTS IN 2023 AND OUTLINE OUR PLANS FOR THE REST OF THE YEAR INCLUDING OUR COMMUNICATION, EVENTS, AND PUBLICATION INITIATIVES.

WE WILL END WITH AN OPEN FORUM WHERE CURRENT AND POTENTIAL MEMBERS CAN ASK QUESTIONS AND NETWORK DURING THIS LISTENING SIG SHOWCASE.

Dr Yo Hamada is an associate professor at Akita University. He holds a Master's degree in TESOL from Temple University and a doctoral degree in Education from Hiroshima University. His research areas include listening and pronunciation. He has published Teaching EFL Learners Shadowing for Listening (Routledge Research in Language Education) and more than 20 papers about shadowing.
