Japan-based TEFL YouTube creators dedicate huge amounts of personal time to their channels and find it a rewarding creative outlet that they recommend with the caveat that it takes hard work, consistency, and grit to grow in every respect.

QUESTIONS ASKED:

- Q1. Tell us about your channel.
- Q2. Why did you start the channel?
- Q3. How often do you post and how long are the videos?
- Q4. How many hours do you typically spend per week on your channel?
- Q5. What tech tools do you use?
- Q6. Has your channel changed in any way over time?
- Q7. What keeps you motivated as a creator?
- Q8. How do you see your channel evolving in the future?
- Q9. If you could have done anything differently at the early stages of your creator experience, what would that have been?
- Q10. Other advice to would-be creators?
